

ANTI-CORRUPTION COMMITMENT

I,

As a Christian and Kenyan Citizen, wish to commit myself to fight without tiring the grave evil of Corruption.

I remove my shoes in solidarity with those who have been deprived of a life by Corruption, those who can't get treatment and medicine because of Corruption, those who can't get employment because of corruption.

I remove my shoes in disgust for the terrible destruction the Sin and curse of Corruption has done to lives, and the misery of many Kenyans.

I remove my shoes as a sign of my resolve to do everything in my power to fight this monster like David fought Goliath, with God and with our little strength.

With this external prophetic sign, of mourning and deprivation, of removing my shoes, I commit to call to God, to change my heart and those of all Kenyans, to give me the courage to become a messenger and warrior against Corruption.

I Commit myself to fight Corruption at all levels, starting from the grassroots, and to reject any opportunity of being corrupt.

I do so by subscribing my name, and wearing this external sign of this ribbon as a visible sign of my commitment.

I Commit myself that I will not receive or give any monetary bribe, or any other bribe of any sort. That I will not be involved in any illicit and unjust means of obtaining Money, Wealth or any Asset. I know it is equivalent to stealing.

I Commit myself to avoid the Corruption of unfairly and unjustly favoring any person or institution who don't deserve or qualify, because of belonging to my Tribe, being a Relative or Friend, at the expense of others.

I Commit that I will strive to act honestly and with integrity, in all my duties, and so begin the uprooting of Corruption from where I am. I know this is both my duty as a Christian and also as a Citizen. This ribbon will be a reminder for me.

I Commit myself to truly live up to God's Commandments, and to truly be a Patriotic Kenyan who will make our Country a better place to live and work with equal opportunities.

I pray that many others may decide to join this campaign and rid our Country once and for all, of this great Sickness and Evil of Corruption.

With God we can overcome this giant Monster as David did!

I therefore commit to overcoming and fighting Corruption!
